

Basic Technical and Hospitality Information

Technical and Hospitality Contract Riders, with more specific details, are available upon request, and will be included with performance contract.

Stage

Minimum Dancing area: 30' feet wide x 25' feet deep performance space, excluding wings or other space rendered unavailable for some reason. Larger space is preferable. A smaller space can be negotiated as part of the contract when fewer dancers are to be cast. Details must be clarified as part of agreement.

Floor: Marley floor if available, to be laid on top of stage surface. Voloshky can provide if necessary. NO concrete! Please note that stage must be clean and dry for performance.

Dressing Facilities

Separate room or rooms sufficient for dancers, costumes and personal effects, with drinking water, near the performance space. Toilet facilities should also be nearby. Racks and/or clean surfaces for costumes are requested, as is steamer and iron with ironing board. Voloshky can provide steamer and iron if necessary.

Sound

Technical staff and professional-quality sound system with sufficient channels, microphones, stands, stage monitors and CD player. Many performances need only CD projection and sufficient microphones to pick up voices of dancers during some numbers. Voloshky can provide a sound system if necessary.

Lighting

General stage lights with gels.

Meals

Regular meals, or reasonable compensation for accessible meals, are requested for company members during time under contract.

Overnight Accommodations

When overnight stays are agreed upon, double occupancy hotel rooms generally expected. Other arrangement may be negotiated as part of contract, as long as comfort, security and reasonable privacy is maintained. If bus charter is involved in Voloshky's travel, separate hotel room must be provided for the driver(s).

Contacts

Please provide Voloshky with names and contact information of:

- venue's technical director
- last minute contact (day of performance and during travel)

Merchandise

Voloshky may request suitable space to sell T-shirts, videos and DVDs.
